

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 3 A.M.

DEPARTURE OF TRAINS

Jacksonville Railroad.
Agents at Louisville, Eastern Express 8:30 P. M. at and Cairo Night Express 11:00 P. M.
Louisville, New Albany & Chicago Railroad.
New Albany as follows: 8:30 A. M., Oct. 1st, 1861, train will leave Chicago Express. 12:15 P. M.
Train arrive at New Albany as follows: 8:30 A. M., 12:15 P. M., 4:15 P. M.
Louisville and Lexington Railroad.
Pass Train No. 1 at 6:30 A. M., 8:30 A. M., Accommodation Train at 4:15 P. M.
Louisville and Nashville Railroad.
Louisville Train 8:30 A. M., 12:15 P. M., Bardstown 4:15 P. M.

METEOROLOGICAL RECORD—OCTOBER 21.

COMPILED DAILY BY E. R. WOODRUFF, CINCINNATI, OHIO.

OPEN AIR, MAX. MIN. BAROMETER Therm. attached.

71° 50' 60" 45° 40' 60" 30° 10' 60" 20° 50' 60" 10° 40' 60"

DEW POINT. Wind.

7 o'clock, 2 o'clock, 7 o'clock, 10 o'clock, 9 o'clock.

West Day, West Dry, West, West, West.

Clouds. In clouds.

Amount. Kind. Velocity. Direction.

1 1 1 1 1 1 1

On St. 1 1 1 1 1 1 1

8:00

Colt's New Revolvers and Revolvers of small size to be sold cheap to good Union men. Enquire at the Journal office.

NOTICE.—Persons sending us news-letters will obligue us by adopting the following address:

"Louisville Journal, Drawer B, Louisville, Ky."

For military advertisements see first page.

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 13.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

Lexington, Oct. 21, 1861.

General Orders No. 2, issued from the office of the Adjutant General of the Kentucky Militia, directing the consolidation of the Kentucky Volunteers into companies, battalions, and regiments, the report of the Commanding General,

All persons who are raising regiments in the State of Kentucky under the authority of the Adjutant General, their regiments are full or already brigaded, will report to the Adjutant General of the State, and conform to the instructions of the State Military Board until their organization is complete and they are ready to be mustered into the service of the United States.

By command of BRIG. GEN. G. H. SHERMAN,

Adjutant General, A.D.G. General.

WINTER CLOTHING FOR THE VOLUNTEERS—

Public Meeting of the Ladies of Louisville and Jefferson County.—We are requested to say that there will be a public meeting of the loyal ladies of Jefferson County and the city of Louisville on Friday evening, November 1, 1861, to consider the best way to meet the wants of the regimental clothing fund.

From GREENSBURG.—After Gen. Ward fell back twelve miles from Greensburg to Campbellville, he despatched a hundred and fifty soldiers to the relief of the rebels Saturday.

The rebels at Dutch Hill, in this city last evening, had been committing depredations in Louisville and New Albany recently.

A silk dress and manilla, which was stolen from Mr. Geo. Hampton's residence on Saturday night, was found in his possession. Bowens has served a term in the penitentiary.

THE MILITARY CAMP AT OAKLAND.—The encampment at the Oakland race course has become an object of attraction, and is visited daily by hundreds of our citizens. It should be borne in mind that the omnibus line which traverses Fourth street has its terminus within about two squares of Oakland, for the accommodation of visitors.

MILITARY MOVEMENT.—The Pennsylvania

Brigade, under command of Gen. Negley, will appear on public parade at an early hour this morning. They will move up Main street to

First, up First to Broadway, and down Broadway to the Nashville Depot, arriving at the depot at 6 o'clock.

BURGLES ARRESTED.—Officers Bligh and Conrad arrested two burglars in their miserable abode, alias Baily and Wm. Bowens, alias Dutch Hill, in this city last evening.

They have been committing depredations in and around the abandoned position, explore as far as possible, the Confederates, intending to attempt a return yesterday, but the cavalry had not returned in the morning when our informant left. General

Ward has about 2,000 regulars and 1,000 Home

Guards at his disposal, under command of Colonels

Grierson, Harlan, Anderson, and Hobson. The Home Guards are principally from Marion and Washington counties.

Col. Grierson, with three companies, visited Greensburg on Saturday night. They entered boldly—the Colonel telling the citizens to prepare accommodations for three thousand Federal troops, who were to be quartered in town. By this time, he had made some arrangements with the citizens to provide for the comfort of the soldiers.

He had a great pleasure to return on Sunday to the same place, and was received with a salute of twenty-one guns.

THE MASONIC GRAND LODGE.—This venerable body of Masons assembled at the Masonic Hall at three P. M. yesterday—100 lodges being represented. Among the Past Grand-Masters present were Messrs. Swigert, Morris, Wise, Monksart, Field, Wingate, and others. All the Grand

Officers were present, save the Grand Master

(Lambert) and the Grand Treasurer and Secretary.

The smallness of the present meeting, compared with the magnitude of those preceding, was mattered by all.

The Grand-Master delivered a brief address, extract from which appear to-morrow.

Report on foreign correspondence and on the finances of the Grand Lodge was "called for labor to refreshment," until 6 P. M.

HOSPITAL AFFAIRS.—We stated yesterday that there were thirty sick and wounded soldiers at the United States Marine Hospital, under the care of Dr. Colcock, on Sunday.

ON WEDNESDAY.—The regimental calls for the officers of the 5th Regt. of Kentucky

Volunteers, to meet at Camp Sherman at the Fair Grounds, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

The patriotic ladies of Eminence and its vicinity thus far tendered to the soldiers of Col. Wm. T. Anderson's regiment, encamped on the Fair Grounds, their services—among them mothers and daughters, wives and sisters, and even young maidens, who have risked their safety to minister to the soldiers.

COLONEL THOMAS J. H. BURNETT, of the 12th Inf.

U. S. Vols., has just returned from a tour of duty in the South.

He has a number of men from his regiment

now in Louisville, and is anxious to get them

home as soon as possible.

COLONEL THOMAS J. H. BURNETT, of the 12th Inf.

U. S. Vols., has just returned from a tour of duty in the South.

He has a number of men from his regiment

now in Louisville, and is anxious to get them

home as soon as possible.

COLONEL THOMAS J. H. BURNETT, of the 12th Inf.

U. S. Vols., has just returned from a tour of duty in the South.

He has a number of men from his regiment

now in Louisville, and is anxious to get them

home as soon as possible.

COLONEL THOMAS J. H. BURNETT, of the 12th Inf.

U. S. Vols., has just returned from a tour of duty in the South.

He has a number of men from his regiment

now in Louisville, and is anxious to get them

home as soon as possible.

COLONEL THOMAS J. H. BURNETT, of the 12th Inf.

U. S. Vols., has just returned from a tour of duty in the South.

He has a number of men from his regiment

now in Louisville, and is anxious to get them

home as soon as possible.

COLONEL THOMAS J. H. BURNETT, of the 12th Inf.

U. S. Vols., has just returned from a tour of duty in the South.

He has a number of men from his regiment

now in Louisville, and is anxious to get them

home as soon as possible.

COLONEL THOMAS J. H. BURNETT, of the 12th Inf.

U. S. Vols., has just returned from a tour of duty in the South.

He has a number of men from his regiment

now in Louisville, and is anxious to get them

home as soon as possible.

COLONEL THOMAS J. H. BURNETT, of the 12th Inf.

U. S. Vols., has just returned from a tour of duty in the South.

He has a number of men from his regiment

now in Louisville, and is anxious to get them

home as soon as possible.

COLONEL THOMAS J. H. BURNETT, of the 12th Inf.

U. S. Vols., has just returned from a tour of duty in the South.

He has a number of men from his regiment

now in Louisville, and is anxious to get them

home as soon as possible.

COLONEL THOMAS J. H. BURNETT, of the 12th Inf.

U. S. Vols., has just returned from a tour of duty in the South.

He has a number of men from his regiment

now in Louisville, and is anxious to get them

home as soon as possible.

COLONEL THOMAS J. H. BURNETT, of the 12th Inf.

U. S. Vols., has just returned from a tour of duty in the South.

He has a number of men from his regiment

now in Louisville, and is anxious to get them

home as soon as possible.

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

UNION RALLY AT SPRINGFIELD.—The friends of the Union will have a grand rally at Springfield, Washington county, on Tuesday, the 22d instant. The whole country has been invited to participate in the festivities, and a general good time is anticipated. Distinguished speakers will be present.

THE GRAND LODGE OF MASON OF OHIO ON THE REBELLION.—The Grand Lodge of Masons have just closed their annual session in Columbus, Ohio.

The W. Grand Master, Bro. George Rex, thus prefaced his annual communication to the Grand Lodge:

Since last met in annual grand communication, even have transpired of such a character as to cast a gloom over our beloved country and to excite in the heart of every patriotic mind to act in the cause of freedom. "There is no safety if all was peace and harmony; and he who addresses you from this chair congratulates you upon the favorable circumstances which have changed, was raised by the hand of God, and on all sides is heard the din of preparation for war. To conduct, and to sustain our patriotic movements of the same great Fatherland—shores of the same precious heritage of freedom! would be by the sword, and the strength of our fathers, without any real or just cause, are ruthlessly endeavoring to destroy this fairest fatherland, government ever created, and the hand of man."

In this deplorable crisis in our affairs, it becomes us, as Masons, to determine what is our duty, and to do it with a spirit of self-sacrifice.

In addition to the fealty, the loyalty, and the attachment which every citizen owes to his country, it is our duty, as every Mason, as his first and chief duty, to be true to our country and just to his Government.

We may, as Masons, enter into any consideration of the political condition of the country, and the measure of our duty in the mean time, but we must, however, be careful not to do so in a manner that would bring many families to the most horrid barbary.

Well, we are engaged in just such a political cause as our own will, against an adversary that has been, and whom it is of great consequence that should again, be our friend. In neither case, nor in either, is the restoration of affairs to the status quo ante bellum that being the object of B.-masons, as he himself declared, he is "not deaf that he has the power to hear," and that he can concern himself with the cause of his country, and just to his Government.

Brother William B. Hubbard, M. W. P. Grand Master, Chairman of a select Committee which we have carefully read and attentively considered the language of our W. Grand Master, and the language of our General, and the Americana, very expressively. He briefly but forcefully brings to our view the fact that a portion of the citizens of the United States have arrayed themselves in rebellion, and in opposition to and its constituted authorities. We are, as seculans and Masons, cognizant of the fact, and history has it, that the rebellion, and the spread of treason, is the result of a corrupt, planned and organized conspiracy of the South, and an unhappy man." This language, like all the language and teachings of the fundamental principles of our Government, but in all the meantime, and to be found, not only in the most amazing, but in all the most remarkable documents of Foreign Powers. A Mason is never to be concerned in plots or conspiracies against the peace and welfare of the nation, say these "authorized charges."

And again, "as a brother, as a rebel, as a rebelionist, as a traitor, as a spy, as an unhappy man." This language, like all the language and teachings of the fundamental principles of our Government, but in all the meantime, and to be found, not only in the most amazing, but in all the most remarkable documents of Foreign Powers. A Mason is never

to be concerned in plots or conspiracies against

the peace and welfare of the nation, say these "authorized charges."

Loyalty to the Government, then, next to that of God, is the next best virtue, while loyalty to the Constitution is the highest and most exalted virtue.

And when engaged in the discharge of our secular duties, and in maintaining the trust reposed in us by our fathers, in a patriotic man-manner, and with a sense of duty, it is necessary in the defense of our integrity.

Your committee, then, are of the opinion that all men, who are bound acting as a unit in accordance with their teachings, and principles that, in common with their fellow-citizens not to be swayed by the influence of the government, and liberties in common, now, forsworn, to be defended, supported, maintained, and perpetuated, and they individually or as a whole, against plots, conspiracies, and rebellion, and in the defense of each and all alike.

In conclusion, your committee respectfully offer for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, in the name of association, as advocated by a class of Americans politicians, as a monstrous absurdity.

Resolved, That it is the duty of every worthy Mason in this hour of peril to stand by the Government, and to support it, and to defend it, and to stand by our fathers, and by our fathers' memory forever.

The officers of the Grand Lodge on the report and resolution was emphatic—it was unanimous.

AMERICANS IN PARIS—WIFE OF LIEUTENANT

GENERAL SCOTT.

(Correspondence of the London Times.)

PARIS, Oct. 29, 1861.

Among the Northern ladies at Paris is the wife of General Scott.

She had a very narrow escape

of being one of the passengers in the Great Eastern, when that steamer, with its late and most heroic crew, was driven ashore.

Her escape, however, was due to the

skill and promptness of her husband.

She was very quiet, however, and

had no time to speak of her

dangerous escape.

She had a very narrow escape

of being one of the passengers in the Great Eastern, when that steamer, with its late and

most heroic crew, was driven ashore.

Her escape, however, was due to the

skill and promptness of her husband.

She was very quiet, however, and

had no time to speak of her

dangerous escape.

She had a very narrow escape

of being one of the passengers in the Great Eastern, when that steamer, with its late and

most heroic crew, was driven ashore.

Her escape, however, was due to the

skill and promptness of her husband.

She was very quiet, however, and

had no time to speak of her

dangerous escape.

She had a very narrow escape

of being one of the passengers in the Great Eastern, when that steamer, with its late and

most heroic crew, was driven ashore.

Her escape, however, was due to the

skill and promptness of her husband.

She was very quiet, however, and

had no time to speak of her

dangerous escape.

She had a very narrow escape

of being one of the passengers in the Great Eastern, when that steamer, with its late and

most heroic crew, was driven ashore.

Her escape, however, was due to the

skill and promptness of her husband.

She was very quiet, however, and

had no time to speak of her

dangerous escape.

She had a very narrow escape

of being one of the passengers in the Great Eastern, when that steamer, with its late and

most heroic crew, was driven ashore.

Her escape, however, was due to the

skill and promptness of her husband.

She was very quiet, however, and

had no time to speak of her

dangerous escape.

She had a very narrow escape

of being one of the passengers in the Great Eastern, when that steamer, with its late and

most heroic crew, was driven ashore.

Her escape, however, was due to the

skill and promptness of her husband.

She was very quiet, however, and

had no time to speak of her

dangerous escape.

She had a very narrow escape

of being one of the passengers in the Great Eastern, when that steamer, with its late and

most heroic crew, was driven ashore.

Her escape, however, was due to the

skill and promptness of her husband.

She was very quiet, however, and

had no time to speak of her

dangerous escape.

She had a very narrow escape

of being one of the passengers in the Great Eastern, when that steamer, with its late and

most heroic crew, was driven ashore.

Her escape, however, was due to the

skill and promptness of her husband.

She was very quiet, however, and

had no time to speak of her

dangerous escape.

She had a very narrow escape

of being one of the passengers in the Great Eastern, when that steamer, with its